

60+ Online – Digital Storytelling

Special Showcase

The Knox Stringybark Festival runs for 2 days on

Date: Saturday 14 & Sunday 15 October 2017

Time: 10am - 5pm (both days)

Where: Rowville Community Centre, 40 Fulham Rd, Rowville

The 60+ Online Digital Storytelling Information sessions are scheduled for 11am and 3pm in the Lotus Bell Tent – Hall 2.

Information sessions, delivered by Swinburne University of Technology, will be held on both days providing an overview of what is involved in creating a digital story.

Knox City Council has been hosting a pilot program, funded by Swinburne University and Telstra, which enables older people to connect with each other, participate in their local community, engage with personal interests and digital stories using mobile devices and social media.

For further information: knox.vic.gov.au/stringybark

